Practice Nurses

Have you had a nursing student on placement in your practice?
If so we want to hear from you.

The University of Western Sydney is conducting a study to evaluate undergraduate student placement in general practice from the perspective of practice nurses and nursing students. We are seeking practice nurses who have had an undergraduate student in their practice on clinical placement to participate in a phone interview to discuss their experience.

If you would like to take part in this exciting opportunity to have your voice heard please contact Dr Elizabeth Halcomb on:
